CAUCUS MEETS MONDAY NIGHT

Much Interest in the City Attornyship Fight.

MR. CRUMP WILL BE VOTED FOR.

His Name Will Be Presented Over His Protest and Against His Wishes. Wagers Being on the Result of the Contest.

The city attorneyship continues to be the livitest topic in political circles. Bets are being made on the result. Wagers are almost even as between Mr. Meredith and Mr. Wendenburg.

The statement made by Mr. Bev. T. Crump in the Times yesterday regarding his position in the matter was a disappointment to those who say that party harmony can be maintained only by the defeat of Mesurs. Meredith and Wendenburg.

This statement, however, is like one of those 13-inch Spanish shells. Poor camp of the compromise men. Instead of silencing their forts it appears to have had the opposite effect for the talk of Mr. Crump as a dark horse continues.

THEY WANT MR. CRUMP.
One of the Councilmen who thinks the party can be saved only by the defeat of the two most prominent candidates said: "I don't think Mr. Crump's statement will affect the contest at all. For one, I am in favor of going ahead statement will affect the contest at all. For one, I am in favor of going ahead and offering him the nomination. He can then decline it or accept it as he may choose. Mr. Crump's name will certainly be presented to the causus. His friends know that he wishes Mr. Meredith success and is working quietly to secure his recommention, but Mr. Crump cannot afford to decline the nomination if tendered him." dered him."

AS TO MR. MEREDITH.

AS TO MR. MEREDITH.

Mr. Meredith's supporters are just as confident as they have ever been that he will win. They say the action of the City Democratic Committée and Old Ebominion Club will make him votes. A radical free silver man who is supporting Mr. Meredith said: "The fight on the City Attorney is simply disgusting. One would think that Mr. Meredith had been the vilest of Republicans. On the contrary, I challenge any man to mention a slingle person in this city who has done more for the Democratic party than Mr. Meredith. He was the one we all looked to when our election officers and challengers were arrested by Federal authorities to defend them. We know how successfully he detended them. Of course, I think, Mr. Meredith made a political mistake in 1896 but kicks come to all of us sometimes. There are men who will sit in the caucus and vote against Mr. Meredith because he did not support Bryan who have been kickers themselves."

WENDENBURG'S CLAIMS.

MR. WENDENBURG'S CLAIMS.
Mr. Wendenburg thinks he will certainly have twenty-two votes to start out with and he caims hat his nomination is gractically assured. He expects to win on the second ballot.

A warm supporter of Mr. Pollard said he thought that gentleman's chances were good and that he was steadily gaining votes.

Alderman Henry L. Carter, of Clay Ward, in conversation with a reporter yesterday said that the publication to the effect that he will nominate his brother for the position of Superintendent of the Aimshouse and that he is personally conducting his brother's cavass, is entirely misleading.

"While I am naturally interested in the success of my brother in his efforts to secure the position which he seeks I will conducting his annuals him, nor am I conducting his canvass. He has plenty of friends to look after these things without having to look to me to do so."

The fourth class then sang an original poem by one of the members of the first class, to the music of the "Bonny Blue class, to the music of the "Bonny Bries Fing," in commemoration of the brave deed of Lieutemant Folison. Lowell's "Vision of Sir Launfai," followed dis-tinctly and intelligently recited by the members of the fifth class, which was a remarkable accomplishment for chilren averaging nine years of uge. After this the fourth class recited in concert portions of Mrs. Browning's "Napoleon III. in Italy," which concluded the first part of the programme.

A short intermission was followed by a march that led to the scene of the "Entertainment" by the second class, in which were read the class poem and class prophecy, the entertainment concluding with a song composed and arranged by two members of the class.

During the reading of the poem class mottoes were distributed.

The third class gave an artistic repre-sentation of subject and scenes from cel-chrated paintings, conspicuous among them being many pictures of famous French women.

Then followed the class peem and valedictory by the first—the only airy—class, in which they extended their greetings and parting advice to those who will suc-

Dr. Hiden's Address.

Various papers, North and South, are commenting favorably upon Dr. Hiden's anniversary address at Crozier Theologi-cal Seminary. The Baptist Courier said that Dr. Hiden would please the Crozier people, as he was one of the best speak-ers in the South. The Western Recorder says Dr. Hiden is one of the few speakers who can be wise and witty at the same time, and the Examiner (New York) says that his address was masterful and calling forth rounds of applause and laughter."

His head struck the ground violently, and he was rendered unconscious for some time. He was carried into Cabell's drugstore and treated, and was able after awhile to walk home.

THE RECRUITS FOR THE ARMY.

War Department Requires Certain Qualifications.

MUST BE HEALTHY AND STRONG.

The Men are to Give Satisfactory Evidence Regarding Age and Character-Col. Jo Lane Stern Back from New York.

Colonel Jo. Lane Stern returned from New York yesterday. He went to that city to confer with influential friends who are seeking to secure for him an appelntment in the inspecting department of the army. The Colonel received much encouragement. He says the New York people are displaying many evidences of patriotism, Men and women wear the national colors and every mention of the army and raval heroes in the theatres is greeted with applause. Colonel Stern was in charge of the Adjurant General's office yesterday. He received from the War Department the blanks to be forwarded to recruiting officers as soon as they report their arrival at the places designated for them to open offices. Captain Willard, at Fairfax Courthouse, and Captain Rowe, at Fredericksburg, have informed the Adjutant-General that they are ready for business and blanks have been sent to them.

Capt. Russell Writes About Affairs at

Camp Cuba Libre. A letter has been received by a friend in Richmond from Captain Wm. Rus-seil, of the Walker Light Guards, which in Riehment from Captain with Aussell, of the Walker Light Guards, which in part follows:

Well, we have gotten in pretty good shape, in fact in better shape than we were at Camp Lee. The boys are very comfortably fixed; I have had floors put in all the tents, and the soil being very sandy you can imagine it is an improvement on sleeping on the ground. Our camp is very well situated, and except during the middle of the day, it is very pleasant, though there is always a good breeze blowing. As I write, 2:39 P. M. a breeze is blowing through my tent so strong that the fly on the tent is flapping very strongly and I can hardly keep the paper down long enough to write.

We are about sixteen miles from the Atlantic, but if we stay here long enough we expect to make several trips to the gea-shore.

Reveille is sounded at 4:45 A. M. (Eastern time, breakfast at 6, drills between 4:45 and 6 A. M. then 7 to 9 A. M. be-tween 9 A. M. and 4 P. M., we have little regiment or battullon work but we at-tempt to do some company work.

On our arrival here we were met by General Lee and you can bet he received a rousing reception from our boys.
